SIR JOHN A. LECTURE

A Review of Sir John A. Macdonald's Time in Picton

Sponsored by

A Turning Point in Canadian History? John A. Macdonald's First Recorded Trial in the Picton Courthouse, October 1834. Would there have been a Canada if Macdonald had lost? Richard Gwyn writes: "No Macdonald... No Canada." If the young Macdonald had not won this first trial, would there have been a Canada as we know it today?

DAVID WARRICK Ph.D. Chair of the Macdonald Project of Prince Edward County, will share new details about the historic trial and this important beginning of Macdonald's career in law and politics.
