

Bay of Quinte: Museums & Archives Group

| Member   | Address  | Phone                 | Email & Web Address   | Contact                                 | Description   |
|--|--|-----------------------|---|---|---|
| Archives &amp; Collections Society/ Canadian Society of Marine Artists                  | "The Victory"205 Main StreetPicton, ONK0K 2T0                          | 613-476-1177          | info@aandc.orgwww.aandc.org  | Paul Adamthwaite,Executive Director | A not-for-profit foundation dedicated to maritime history and conservation, marine research and nautical education. They have thousands of maritime and nautical documents, books, images charts, magazines and are expanding databases to provide comprehensive marine and nautical research.  |
| Belleville Scout-Guide Museum   | Sir James Whitney School350 Dundas St WBelleville, ONK8P 1B2           | 613-966-2740          | Bvl-sc-gg@rocketmail.comhttp://www3.sympatico.ca/pandj/home.htm                                     | David Bentley,Historian/Archivist   | Started in 1975 as a private museum, the Belleville Scout-Guide Museum has grown to be one of the largest collections of Scout-Guide memorabilia on permanent display in Canada. The museum features over 25,000 items. Any item which is associated with boy scouts and/or girl guides is considered a collectable and a memorabilia item which preserves history.   |
| Community Archives(City of Belleville, Hastings County) Opening in 2011 | To be established at:315 Church Street,BellevilleON K8N 3C7            | 613-967-3200x3265 | swhite@city.belleville.on.ca  | Sharon White,Archivist              | The collections will include the archival municipal records of the City of Belleville and the County of Hastings and their former municipalities as well as some member municipalities of the County that do not have their own archival program. The archives of the Hastings County Historical Society will also be moved into the new archives and will continue to be managed by the volunteers under the direction of the Archivist. |
| Deseronto Archives  | Deseronto Public Library358 Main StreetBox 302Deseronto, ONK0K 1X0 | 613-396-2744          | deseronto.archives@gmail.comhttp://deserontoarchivist.blogspot.com                               | Amanda Hill,Archivist               | Established in 1997 with the aim of safeguarding the existing historical records of the Town Council and of collecting other materials relating to the history of the town. A number of photographs of Deseronto are held, as are subject files on particular aspects of Deseronto's history.   |
| Glanmore National Historic Site of Canada   | 257 Bridge Street EastBelleville, ONK8N 1P4                                | 613-962-2329          | rrustige@city.belleville.on.cahttp://www.city.belleville.on.ca/portal/bvcityhall/ | Rona Rustige,Curator                | Designated a National Historic Site in 1969 for its exceptional 2nd Empire architecture. Glanmore was built in 1882-1883 for wealthy banker J.P.C.  |

Bay of Quinte: Museums & Archives Group

| Member   | Address  | Phone                     | Email & Web Address  | Contact   | Description  |
|--|--|---------------------------|--|---|--|
|  |  |                           | glanmorenationalhistoricsite   |   | Phillips (1842-1912) and his wife Harriet Dougall Phillips (1839-1915). The grand interior features beautiful hand-painted ceilings and ornate woodwork. Many rooms have been restored to the 1890s and display numerous special collections.  |
| Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment Military Museum | C/O The Armoury187 Pinnacle StBelleville, ONK8N 3A5                  | 613-966-2100              | johnfsherry@sympatico.cawww.theregiment.ca               | LCol John F. Sherry, CD (Ret'd)Director | Featuring memorabilia dealing with The Hastings & Prince Edward Regiment and its predecessors, including military weaponry from any Canadian historical period.  |
| Hastings County Historical Society                  | 154 Cannifton RoadNorth—GeneralDeliveryCannifton, ONK0K 1K0      | 613-968-5023              | www.hastingshistory.ca   | Mary Jane Throop                                | Historic documents, newspapers and pictures relating to the history of Hastings County are housed in the Hastings Heritage Centre in the former Thurlow Township Hall. The collections are available for researchers during posted hours.  |
| Museums of Prince Edward County                     | C/O 332 Main StreetPicton, ONK0K 2T0                                     | 613-476-2148ext. 426  | museums@pecounty.on.cawww.pecounty.on.ca/museums   | Jennifer Lyons,Head Curator                 | Five unique museums located throughout the County. In scenic surroundings, they interpret the community's dynamic history. In addition to providing exhibitions and educational programs, the museums also offer customized tours for groups. The sites include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Ameliasburgh Historical Museum &amp; Pioneer Village</li> <li>➤ Macaulay Heritage Park, Picton</li> <li>➤ Mariners Park Museum, South Bay</li> <li>➤ Rose House Museum, Waupoos</li> <li>➤ Wellington Heritage Museum</li> </ul> |
| Quinte Branch, Ontario Genealogical Society         | Quinte West PublicLibrary7 Creswell DriveTrenton, OntarioK8V 6X5 | 613-394-3381ext. 3328 | quintebranch@ogs.on.cawww.rootsweb.com/~canqbogs/ | Richard Hughes,Chairman                     | Quinte Branch is part of Region VII of the OGS and covers the counties of Hastings and Prince Edward and part of Northumberland. The information in the Branch's research library extends well beyond these counties. The goals and objectives of Quinte Branch are to encourage participation in genealogical activities; to assemble and preserve family histories and research  |

Bay of Quinte: Museums & Archives Group

| Member  | Address  | Phone  | Email & Web Address   | Contact   | Description   |
|---|--|--|---|---|---|
|   |  |  |   |   | material; and to facilitate and assist family history researchers at our library and by correspondence.   |
| Quinte Educational Museum and Archives               | 14 Coleman StreetGroup Box 14Ameliasburgh, ONK0K 1A0 | 613-966-5501                                       | gema@bellnet.cahttp://www.pec.on.ca/victoriaschoolhouse/ | Lynda Sommer,Vice President                       | In 2005, the Victoria Schoolhouse (c.1904) was moved to its present location adjacent to the Ameliasburgh Pioneer Village. There visitors can experience a one room schoolhouse. The Archives, located in the Ameliasburgh Town Hall, have a large collection of artifacts and records to provide researchers with information regarding schools, teachers, students and curriculum.  |
| The Bath Museum of Loyalist Township                 | 434 Main StreetBath, ONK0H 1G0                           | 613-352-7716or613-652-5071(G. Heywood) | Heywood@3web.com  | Gail Heywood,Secretary                            | First organized in 1936, the museum is newly relocated in the old Town Hall on Bath's Main Street. The village was first settled by UELs in 1784 and was home to the first grammar school and brewery in Upper Canada; in addition, Bath was once a major shipping port on Lake Ontario. The museum boasts an impressive display of antique tools, toys, a General Store display and artefacts from aboriginal peoples.   |
| The Royal Canadian Legion Branch 78, Military Museum | 347 Main Street EastPicton, Ontario, K0K 2T0                 | 613-476-5833(T. Durning)                       | theresadurning@gmail.com  | Theresa Durning,CuratorSusan Rose,Curator | A museum featuring the military collections of Branch 78 of the Royal Canadian Legion, including costumes, medals, and archival materials.  |
| U.E.L. Heritage Centre &amp; Park                    | 54 AdolphustownPark RdBox 112 RR1 BathON K0H 1G0     | 613-373-2196                                       | 1784@uel.cawww.uel.ca  |   | A non-profit preservation project owned by the Bay of Quinte Branch, United Empire Loyalists' Association of Canada; it serves as a dynamic memorial to those families that were witness to the founding of Upper Canada. The heritage centre preserves and develops the original Adolphustown landing site, burial ground, and town plan for the interpretation and continuation of the historic settlement area vision, linking research, education, and social engagement. |

Bay of Quinte: Museums & Archives Group

Membership:

- Open to organizations in the Bay of Quinte area that acquire and preserve collections as a key part of their activities.
- Membership is free.
- Semi-annual meetings (in April & October)

Goals of Group:

- Share resources, information, outreach activities and information.
- Create a resource list—mainly for contact purposes.
- Artifact exchange when applicable.
- Joint marketing when possible.
- Professional development.