

WAITING TO WELCOME YOU

Words & music: Jeanette Arsenault
Copyright 2002

As the sun rises over the water to welcome a brand new day
Prince Edward County is waiting to take your breath away

Discover an island of beauty, come and feast your eyes
Follow your heart to the County to find your piece of paradise

CHORUS

Come for a day, stay for a lifetime, that's what you'll do
Prince Edward County is waiting, waiting to welcome you

Enjoy a simpler way of life where things are handmade and home grown
You'll fall in love with the County and want to call it your own

As the sun rises over the water and lights up the sky so blue
Prince Edward County is waiting, waiting to welcome you
